

STRATEGY DAYS

We take your definition of success and figure out how to get you there

WHO IT'S FOR

- Business leaders
- Entrepreneurs
- Executive teams

Whether you're a two person company or scaling from 100 to 200 employees in the next year, we know how to guide you.

GOAL OF A STRATEGY DAY

In a six- to eight- hour session, we facilitate deep conversations to help you identify major needs and opportunities that you and your team can actually manifest in the coming months.

By the end of the day, you leave with a strategic plan, based on your definition of success.

IT'S SIMPLE TO BEGIN

No big slide decks or prep work in advance. Let us do the heavy lifting so you can focus on running your business.

We get to know each other

Schedule a date, location and choose a facilitator

Define success and develop an agenda

Show up and get to work. We take care of the rest

ABOUT DELTA AWESOME

We're an executive strategy agency. Our zone of genius is helping you manage the chaos of growth. We believe entrepreneurs and business leaders have the power to change the world. We help them do that.

“In a few hours, we answered strategic questions and created a tactical plan for what each team member needed to do tomorrow. We left armed and ready to implement those strategies.”
